SurferQuest Kiosk Software

Self-Contained kiosk software that manages your system, keeps the users out of the OS and protects the privacy of the user by deleting the entire user left-over content, leaving a clean system for every new user.

Users will get the ultimate experience

Users have the freedom to download and install applications, take in their own game CD's and play games, chat, e-mail, work in MS Office and of course browse the web. The user will find only restrictions in accessing the deeper buried windows files.
